

DESERT GARDENS HOTEL – BROCHURE COPY

50 WORDS

Perched within an oasis of native gardens, the hotel's elegant guestrooms provide a relaxing retreat from a day of adventure. Accommodation options are diverse, from deluxe rock view rooms to shady poolside rooms. You will find free guided walks through Desert Gardens Hotel's substantial and authentic native gardens just outside your hotel door.

150 WORDS

Imagine waking up to a sunrise view of Uluru, blazing red under a sunny Outback sky. Desert Gardens Hotel boasts the only rooms with views of Uluru in Ayers Rock Resort. Perched within an oasis of native gardens, the hotel's 218 elegant guestrooms provide a relaxing retreat from a day of adventure. Accommodation options are diverse, from deluxe rock view rooms to shady poolside rooms, each located under a canopy of towering gumtrees and garden beds dotted with native shrubs and flowers.

Once you've satisfied the urges to explore the magic within Uluru-Kata Tjuta National Park, you will find free guided walks through Desert Gardens Hotel's substantial and authentic native gardens just outside your hotel door.

All of Ayers Rock Resort's luxuries and conveniences, including numerous lookouts, Red Ochre Spa and the shops, tour & information centre and cafés located at the Resort Town Square, are within easy walking distance or accessible via the free shuttle bus.

KEY FEATURES

- Only rooms with views of Uluru in Ayers Rock Resort (Deluxe Rock View Rooms).
- Centrally located to all the Resort and touring facilities
- Desert Deluxe and Deluxe Rock View rooms can fit 5 persons in the room
- Accessible rooms available